

- By air: Newcastle International Airport is 12 miles away off the A696. Taxis and hire cars are available.
- By rail: Newcastle Central Station on the East Coast Main Line, is 15 miles away. Taxis are available.
- By car: Follow signs to Blyth taking the A1061 junction on the A189 and follow the road straight on to Blyth Quayside.
- By bus: X24 and X11 buses leave Haymarket bus station in Newcastle every 15 minutes during the day. Journey time 45 minutes.
- By taxi: Approximately 20 minutes from Airport and 25 minutes from the centre of Newcastle.

www.narec.co.uk

Site Tour?

If you are attending a site tour please bring closed toe flat shoes & appropriate outdoor clothing for the time of year. High visibility jackets and hard hats will be provided.

New and Renewable Energy Centre

Eddie Ferguson House Ridley Street Blyth NE24 3AG Tel: 01670 359555 Fax: 01670 359666 email: info@narec.co.uk